in God's grace with our community and the world

Grace and peace be unto you from God, our Father and our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

...all the time, God is good.

"May we each day open the window of our worlds, inviting the fresh Light of Epiphany to flood us with hope, to bring us fresh insight and to fill us with grateful joy. May we see the world around us with new creation eyes, filled with potential and brimming with promise. May our lives be a continuous unfolding into God's grace, revealing new vistas that expand our faith horizons. In Jesus' name we pray, and by his name we are saved. Amen."

+ Prayer from "Epiphany: Unfolding the Discovery" a resource download available online from Women of the ELCA

Happy and blessed 2024,all! Wow, 2024 already. Doesn't seeing, writing and saying that just seem futuristic? After all, not too long ago, we were watching the futuristic movies like "2001: A Space Odyssey", and "2010". And the future in "Back to the Future" was set in the year 2015.

It seems like we (humans) are always pondering the future, worried about the future, curious about the future, wanting to know the future. Yet, in this time of the liturgical season of Epiphany...we find those answers, but not how one might think. We find those answers not in time travel to the future where Apes take over the world, or where Morlocks must have their sacrifice...but in looking back. In looking back into the past, we find our future and our answers.

As we look back, and are called to do so in reflection during Epiphany, we find our central, called focus to be on Christ...on the baptism and revelation of Jesus Christ being present with us and being both fully human and fully God. And as we reflect and ponder and dig deeper into our faith life that God is calling us to, and find that the Holy Spirit has been guiding us and strengthening us in our belief that "Jesus is Lord!" – we find our answers to the future.

A future covered in the desire of God to be in relationship with us. A future of God's love already poured out to us, promised to us, and given through God's adoption of us and sacrifice of God's only son to redeem us from our sinful selves.

This future we seek and long for and question, has already been answered through that loving, atoning, encompassing love of Jesus Christ – that "I give them eternal life, and they will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand." (John 10:28)

So, in this futuristic 2024, when desiring to know more of the future... perhaps we've all (as the song says) "gotta go back in time..."

Blessings,
+ Pr. Soren

Be blessed. Be a blessing.

Electronic Giving is simple and a consistent way to help our church grow. Consider scheduling a recurring electronic contribution today. It's easy! You will no longer need to write our checks and prepare envelopes every week. Even when travel, illness, or other circumstances prevent you from attending services, your electronic contributions will continue to be received on an uninterrupted basis.

MyVanco is a program administered by Vanco Services, which allows you to make one-time or recurring donations from your checking or savings account (an ACH transfer) on a secure donation site. Your donation setup can be managed entirely online. Donations can be started, changed, put on hold or stopped at any time. It's a safe and simple way to give! Anyone can sign up for MyVanco by enrolling online.

Click LOGIN to sign up for MyVanco.

Or you can also sign up for electronic giving by filling out a SimplyGiving Vanco paper authorization form and submitting it to the church office.

Many people already use electronic giving in their giving plan and we are so appreciative for the ongoing support of our vital ministry. Contact the church office at (906)523-4315 or office.htlc@gmail.com with any questions. Thank you for supporting HTLC!

Greetings Fortune Lake!

A Winter Wonderland Retreat will be held January 12th - 14th. This retreat is the perfect opportunity to get outside and enjoy the snowy Northwoods, spend time in community with other folks, and take time away from the busyness of your everyday lives. I want to specifically highlight the opportunity to bring a group (youth or otherwise!) from your congregation to enjoy a winter getaway at Fortune Lake.

The weekend will feature opportunities to snowshoe around camp trails, an optional trip to nearby Ski Brule, hot saunas, delicious food, camp-style songs and activities, worship, and more. This is a great chance to spend time with your group and to bond with new friends. Lodging options include both the duplexes and our retreat lodge, so there's a fit for any group.

Have questions? Reach out! I am available by phone or email, both listed below. We would love to have you join us for some joyous time in a Winter Wonderland. The link to learn more about the retreat and to find the registration page is copied below as well as a blurb to include in your communications.

for the Month of January

---

Baptism of Our Lord January 7, 2024

Our re-creation in baptism is an image of the Genesis creation, where the Spirit of God moved over the waters. Both Mark's gospel and the story in Acts make clear that it is the Spirit's movement that distinguishes Jesus' baptism from John's. The Spirit has come upon us as upon Jesus and the Ephesians, calling us God's beloved children and setting us on Jesus' mission to re-create the world in the image of God's vision of justice and peace.

Second Sunday After Epiphany January 14, 2024

All the baptized have a calling in God's world. God calls not just pastors and deacons but also the youngest child, like Samuel. The story of the calling of Nathanael plays with the idea of place. Nathanael initially dismisses Jesus because he comes from Nazareth. But where we come from isn't important; it's where—or rather whom—we come to. Jesus refers to Jacob, who had a vision in a place he called "the house of God, and . . . the gate of heaven" (Gen. 28:17). Jesus says he himself is the place where Nathanael will meet God.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

God, our rock and refuge, we pour out our hearts before you. We have known you but have not always loved you. We have wounded one another and sinned against you. We have not always recognized the Holy Spirit dwelling in each of us. Remember your covenant. Renew your creation. Restore us, that we might proclaim your good news to all. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Holy God, creator of light and giver of goodness, your voice moves over the waters. Immerse us in your grace, and transform us by your Spirit, that we may follow after your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

READINGS

First Reading: Genesis 1:1-5
Psalm Reading: Psalm 29
Second Reading: Acts 19:1-7
Gospel Reading: Mark 1:4-11

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ, most merciful redeemer, for the countless blessings and benefits you give. May we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day praising you, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

READINGS

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:1-20
Psalm Reading: Psalm 139:1-18
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:12-20
Gospel Reading: John 1:43-51

BLESSING

God who names you, Christ who claims you, and the Holy Spirit who dwells in you, + bless you and remain with you always. Amen.

Third Sunday After Epiphany January 21, 2024

"As we continue through the time after Epiphany, stories of the call to discipleship show us the implications of our baptismal calling to show Christ to the world. Jesus begins proclaiming the good news and calling people to repentance right after John the Baptist is arrested for preaching in a similar way. Knowing that John was later executed, we see at the very outset the cost of discipleship. Still, the two sets of brothers leave everything they have known and worked for all their lives to follow Jesus and fish for people.

Fourth Sunday after Epiphany January 28, 2023

In Deuteronomy God promises to raise up a prophet like Moses, who will speak for God; in Psalm 111 God shows the people the power of God's works. For the church these are ways of pointing to the unique authority people sensed in Jesus' actions and words. We encounter that authority in God's word, around which we gather, the word that prevails over any lesser spirit that would claim power over us, freeing us to follow Jesus.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

God, our rock and refuge, we pour out our hearts before you. We have known you but have not always loved you. We have wounded one another and sinned against you. We have not always recognized the Holy Spirit dwelling in each of us. Remember your covenant. Renew your creation. Restore us, that we might proclaim your good news to all. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Almighty God, by grace alone you call us and accept us in your service. Strengthen us by your Spirit, and make us worthy of your call, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Compassionate God, you gather the whole universe into your radiant presence and continually reveal your Son as our Savior. Bring wholeness to all that is broken and speak truth to us in our confusion, that all creation will see and know your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen

READINGS

First Reading: Jonah 3:1-5, 10
Psalm Reading: Psalm 62:5-12
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 7:29-31
Gospel Reading: Mark 1:14-20

READINGS

First Reading: Deuteronomy 18:15-20
Psalm Reading: Psalm 111
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 8:1-13
Gospel Reading: Mark 1:21-28

BLESSING

God who names you, Christ who claims you, and the Holy Spirit who dwells in you, + bless you and remain with you always.
Amen.
